In the Open Mind, illustrate your thoughts and feelings about the trial from the perspective of one of the characters. Show what was going on in the character’s mind using graphic symbols and images. You may also use single words and phrases.
Explain the meaning of the pictures, drawings, symbols, and/or images that you illustrated in the “Open Mind” and why you chose to include them.